PERSONAL NOTES.

E. O. Griffin is here from San Antonio.

Hon. Rees Fowler came in from Austin last night.

R. R. Claridge and wife went down to Byron this afternoon.

E. A. Goodridge, I. & G. N. agent at Jacksonville, is in the city today.

Mrs. Rohde, mother of Mrs. Joe Maloney, left for her home at Bryan at noon.

J. W. Hassell and wife of Naches are in the city, and Mr. Hassell left a subscription for the Herald.

Miss Moss of Cleburne, who has been visiting Mrs. J. E. Douthit on Tennessee Avenue, left this morning for Rockdale.

Mrs. W. L. Holder and babies left at noon for Yorktown, to visit Mrs. Holder's relatives. Mr. Holder accompanied them as far as Houston.

A report has gained circulation that Mrs. W. M. Hamilton is seriously ill. She is up, after a slight illness. This in response to inquiries of numerous friends.

S. G. Jackson was in the city today, and left the Herald two jugs of fine ribbon cane syrup. Mr. Jackson makes some very fine syrup. You should just try it.

We learn that Marvin Bailey, an old Palestine boy, lately chief clerk in the M. K. & T. Freight Office, at Houston, has been promoted as Station Agent at Lockhart, on the same road.

W. M. Ellis of Rusk passed through the city this morning from Austin. Mr. Ellis is an applicant for a place in the comptroller's office. He is a splendid fellow and a life-long friend of the Herald men.

E. M. Holland, one of the best of Anderson county farmers, was in to see the Herald today and paid for a year's subscription for himself, and one for his sister living in South Carolina.

All wool half hose for winter wear at Cooke and Inkley's. They can be obtained in the natural and black colors. These are first grade goods and are just the thing for hunting. Also the popular white foot half hose—the best 25c hose on the market. In fact, anything in the hosiery line you can find it at Cooke and Inkley's.

The reader will not fail to see a published report of the First National Bank in this issue. The First National is one bank that does not try to hide its published reports when called upon by the government to make them, but gives all publicity possible, using the columns of the Herald.

LITTLE NANNIE'S STORY.

One't there was a little boy
' At sneaked up-stairs
En didn't kiss his ma good-night,
Ner didn't say his prayers!
' Nen when she called him
He began to snore,
' Tendin' like he's ist sleep.
Good enuf, fer shore!
' Nen when it's night time
Heerd an orful noise
' At ud skeer big men folks
' At ain't little boys;
Satan ist whisslun
' At's the way he skares
Little boys 'at's sneaked off
' Nout saying' 'er prayers.

Telegraphic Brevities.

New Orleans will hold its boll weevil convention Monday.

One fireman was killed and seven injured at Cincinnati.

Chicago street railway strikers have returned to work, and all cars are being operated as usual.

Bailey of Texas will close the debate for the opposition to the Cuban bill.

Kansas capitalists have bought the salt mines at Grand Saline, Texas.

Louis Shropshire was robbed and badly used by footpads at Beaumont.

San Antonio reports dynamite used on the street railway track and one passenger badly hurt. The car men there have not given up their fight.

S. W. Sanders was killed at Taylor while trying to climb into a buggy with a loaded shotgun.

Mrs. Ellen Bailey has been given ten years in prison for planning the wreck of the train on the Norfolk and Western railway near Staunton, Va.

Senator Bailey has bought the race horse Impeatus at New York, paying $1000 therefor.

Emory, Rains County, Texas, has had a $35,000 fire in its business district.

An Acknowledgement.

Thinking those who confer benefits would be pleased to know that they are appreciated, we hereby wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to our friends of the city who remembered us with tokens of kindness Thanksgiving day. Friends will please accept our grateful acknowledgments for kind considerations shown.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

While Switching in the I. & G. N. Yards at Tyler.

About 9:45 last night Mr. Will D. Seagle, son of Mr. J. Seagle, an old citizen of Tyler, was horribly crushed between two freight cars on the I. & G. N. track near the water tank on East Erwin street, and died an hour afterward.

How the distressing accident occurred is not known. It is supposed that Mr. Seagle, who was a brakeman on the train, went in between the cars to see after the coupling, and by some means lost his balance, falling between the draw heads.

As the train was using automatic couplers, it is not known why he went between the cars.

The unfortunate young man has many relatives and friends in the city who are both shocked and grieved at his untimely death.

Railroad men face danger every day and hour and die as did this young man, at the post of duty. They are heroes in the truest sense of the term and as brave as the soldier who challenges death amid the smoke and thunder of battle. All honor to the heroes of the rail.—Tyler Democrat Reporter.

STRUCK OIL.

At Forty-Nine Feet—Enthusiasm Runs High at the Oil Field.

Yesterday afternoon at a depth of only forty-nine feet, a considerable pocket of oil was struck at the oil field, and enthusiasm was increased over the prospect. Samples of the oil brought to town showed it to be a heavy oil, with a decided Beaumont oil odor.

This morning another strike was made at a greater depth, and experts said it would prove a ten barrel well, or perhaps more.

However, the drill is going down, and a paying well is expected by every one acquainted with the field.

Warmed Over.

It comes as hash, it comes as stew; Its stay is still deferred. For days to come no doubt we'll view That same Thanksgiving bird.

To rid yourself of hashy taste, The best thing for you Is to call at J. S. Temple's store And get you something new.

Y. M. C. A. Notice.

The usual meetings will be held in the building of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow. Usual addresses to the men and boys. The boy's Bible class will be held at two o'clock.

"She Sells Sea Shells"

"Our" modern version is "We Sell Sea Shell".—Referring to the difference between fresh water pearl and sea pearl,—perhaps you've never noticed it. The former lacks the rich sun tints entirely that lie imprisoned in the oyster shell on the strands of the Adriatic and the Mediterranean. We are showing many styles of sea pearl waists sets in cut and carved effects, in cream, champagne shades, pink and blue. A pretty showing indeed of 50 and 75 cent values. They are priced to you as a "flyer" at Twenty-Five cents the set.

Ham and Gravy.

Last night Price Allen, colored, was arrested and landed in jail, charged with the stealing of fifteen hams and fifty pounds of lard from the packery. He was evidently preparing to feast on good old ham and gravy.

Saloon Men, Take Notice.

When in want of whiskey bottles phone or call on A. C. Opperman or Magnolia saloon. Note prices per gross, delivered:

Half pints $1.60, pints $2.50, quarts, short, $4.50, full quarts $5.50 any shape. Gallon jugs 7 cents each. 88-17

Important Meeting.

Members of the Civic Improvement League will please meet at the city hall Thursday, Dec. 3 at 3 p. m. sharp. All members are urged and others invited to be present. Important business to transact. By order of PRESIDENT.

Weather Bulletin.

For Palestine and vicinity: Tonight and Sunday fair weather; warmer tonight; colder Sunday.
